5	Need Analysis (Why the procurement was necessary?)	As per its mandate being the country's Social Safety Net (SSN) Programme. BISP identified eligible poor families and through its Unconditional Cash Transfer (UCT) scheme, BISP provides quarterly assistance of 4,834 PKR to each of the 5.6 million beneficiary families' from all our Pakistan. BISP's Waseela-e-Taleem Programme, is a complementary initiative linked to the UCT scheme and is an integral part of the beneficiary families' graduation strategy. Under the WeT Programme, BISP provides conditional assistance to the eligible children of BISP's UCT scheme's selected beneficiary families so that they could complete primary education of their children aging from 5 to 12 years, in conformity with the permissible compliance parameters including the maximum duration of seven years. For the implementation of WeT Programme, BISP has the support of Development Partners (International Donors). After successful rollout the Programme in thirty two (32) selection districts, BISP's Development Partners committed to extend their support to BISP in further rolling out of WeT Programme, therefore, it was decided to expand the programme in additional eighteen (18) districts, selected across the country &amp; clubbed in two geographical clusters, enabling BISP Beneficiaries of those districts to obtain the benefit of the WeT Programme
