WITH BRIEF REASONS (i.e EMERGENCY, DIRECT CONTRACTING, NEGOTIATED TENDERING ETC.)

The amount of Rs. 699,415,623.00 (Rupees Six Hundred ninety-nine million four hundred fifteen thousand six hundred twenty three only) transferred to UNICEF. Rule 42(d) (iii) of Public Procurement Rules, 2004 was invoked and the vaccine was procured from UNICEF Supply Division, Copenhagen-Denmark through UNICEF-Pakistan, Islamabad. It is clarified that an advertisement was published on 13-08-2016 in daily Express and The News for procurement of Measles vaccines. No bid was received for supply of Measles vaccine. It is submitted that availability of Measles vaccine through UNICEF is a blessing for EPI Programme in the scenario when the vaccine is globally very short and there is no manufacturer or importer of Measles vaccine in the country. During last four years advertisements were published for eight times on 17-12-2013, 08-01-2014, 02-04-2014, 26-08-2014, 12-11-2014, 23-04-2016, 07-08-2016 and 13-08-2016 for procurement of Measles vaccine through local bidders in accordance with PPRA Rules, 2004. However no bid was received in response to advertisement. Resultantly the EPI was compelled to approach UNICEF in pursuance of Rule 42 (d) (iii) of PPRA Rules, 2004 for procurement of vaccine to avoid the stock out situation which emerged in 2012 resulting in tragic deaths of more than 400 children in a short span of time.
