QUALIFYING MARKS: 70 OUT OF 100 (70%)

Financial bids of only “Technically Responsive Bidders” will be opened.

(b) Financial proposals/ bids:

After the completion of technical evaluation, the Purchaser shall inform the bidders scoring less than 70 points that their bids have been found non-responsive and that their financial proposal will be returned unopened after completing the selection process. The Purchaser shall simultaneously inform, in writing, the bidders having secured the qualifying points i.e. 70 and above of date, time and place for opening the financial proposals. Bidder’s attendance at the opening of financial proposal is optional;

23.4 Financial proposals shall be opened publicly in the presence of the bidders or their representatives who choose to be present. Before opening the financial proposals, names of the bidders and the points scored by them in the technical evaluation shall be read out aloud. Total prices quoted by each in the financial proposal shall also be announced and recorded;

23.5 The proposal with the lowest cost will be given a financial score of 100, and the other proposals given scores that are inversely proportional to their prices, i.e., if the lowest conforming price is A, then the score for price B is $(A/B) \times 100\%$. Similarly the financial score of price C will be $(A/C) \times 100\%$.

23.6 The relative weightings for technical and financial scores is 70% for the technical score and 30% for the financial score. For ease of understanding, if the technical and financial are distributed 70% and 30% respectively, then in this case the technical score will be multiplied by 70% and the financial
